Georgia Chamber of Commerce President and CEO Chris Clark, a native of Fitzgerald, GA., earned his bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern University and received his master's in public administration from Georgia College and State University.

Chris currently serves on the state board for the Department of Economic Development as an ex officio member, the Georgia Academy for Economic Development Board of Directors, and the advisory board for the College of Liberal Arts at Georgia Southern University. The Georgia Chamber works across regional boundaries on issues of statewide impact and that are critical to business success. We are positioned to aggressively and actively lobby the Georgia Legislature and Congressional delegation on behalf of our members and with a focus on making our state economically competitive.
