KAVAN MARAMBE

Kavan Marambe is from Colombo, Sri Lanka, where he resides with his father, mother and fifteen year old sister. In August his father, Channa, spoke to our club. His father is an immediate past president of a Sri Lanka Rotary Club.

Since his arrival in August, Kavan has adapted well and is known for his personality and easy ways plus an engaging smile. He is a noted guitarist and as such played for the GRSP

Conclave in Thomasville. He attends Middle Georgia College in Cochran and his roommate, Dylan John, is also from Sri Lanka. Kavan plans to continue his education in the United States and is currently considering the aviation field. Kavan has enjoyed Middle Georgia College and has met a lot of people. Just this week he was in a badminton tournament in Cochran. If you want to eat a birdie just play badminton with Kavan. His host parents are Peter and Clara Makaya. Peter and Clara have been gracious host parents and Kavan is most appreciative of their support and guidance.

GRSP was started in 1946 with the first class being only three students. Since inception, GRSP has hosted over 330 students from around the world. The class this year has fifty three students. The Dublin Club has hosted a student for approximately fifty-six years. The purpose of GRSP is to develop world peace and understanding.
